
NORTH DAKOTA STATEWIDE POLLING: Voters Overwhelmingly Support Ending Property Taxes

OVERVIEW

Earlier this month, DecipherAi conducted a statewide opinion research poll among North Dakota's primary voters. A large majority of voters favor ending property taxes in North Dakota.

q_PropertyTaxBallot

This year, voters may cast a ballot on ending the property tax in North Dakota. How would you most likely cast your vote? For eliminating property taxes or against eliminating property taxes? 1. 212

70% Ending the property tax

2. 90 30% Continuing the property tax

302 100% Total

Ending property taxes additionally has approval with a large percentage of North Dakota voters – across all demographics & geographic regions.

Including:

For Ending Property Taxes by demo/geo

n109/302 69.72% Fargo/Grand Forks DMA

n193/302 70.47% Western North Dakota DMA

n163/302 68.10% Rural Voters

n139/302 72.66% Suburban Voters

n158/302 74.68% Males

n144/302 65.28% Females

n69/302 68.12% 35-54

n63/302 65.08% 55-64

n163/302 72.39% 65+

- Fielding dates: January 3-5, 2024
- Survey Methodology: Text to Web, Phones
- Error rate: +/- 5%
- Sample size: n=302
- Respondents: Independents, Republicans
- Confidence level: 95%
- Weighting: Applied

David Wolfson is a national pollster for DecipherAi. He is a Lecturer at Columbia University teaching in the Political Analytics Graduate Program this spring.

